A fantastic book by a great friend of the gallery, Susanna Salk, At Home with Dogs and their Designers honors America's leading interior designers and explores how they live in style with their adorable dogs. It offers an array of clever tips for keeping your home and your dogs attractive and chic. Each individual chapter follows a different dog as it romps through a stunning interior or garden that it calls home. With 176 pages bursting with color and character, this inspirational design book will make you smile.
