BLUE AND WHITE PEONY JAR

$780

c. 1850 • China • Ceramic • Collection #CGP004B

H: 7.5" Dia: 8.0"

This 19th-century blue-and-white ginger jar is defined by its thin walls, round body, and delicate lid topped with a bud-form handle. Painted with expressive brushwork, the jar is festooned with peony blossoms, emblems of spring time and feminine beauty. Tucked amid the flowers is a resting phoenix, a regal motif in Chinese art that furthers the vase's blessings of beauty, dignity, and good fortune.
