Beijing, China • Porcelain • Collection #BJCC060A

H: 22.0" Dia: 11.5"

Chinese blue-and-white ceramics have inspired ceramists worldwide since cobalt was first introduced to China from the Middle East thousands of years ago. This contemporary vase from Beijing assumes a traditional curved shape. Ranging from dark saturated tones to sheer washes, the expertly painted decoration depicts a number of items precious to scholars of the 18th and 19th centuries. It is capped with a shizi (otherwise known as a Fu dog), which symbolizes power and strength of character.
