FLARED CELADON JAR

$380

c. 1900 • China • Ceramic • Collection #CFC337B

H: 8.5" Dia: 8.25"

Dated to the early 20th century, this glazed ceramic jar features a flared lip and bulbous sides textured by a pattern of ridges. A celadon-green glaze coats the swelling sides, gently aged with subtle crazing and pitted wear. The top opening is wide enough to accommodate a small potted plant, making this rustic vessel an ideal tabletop planter for the modern home.
