COIL PICKLING POT

$280

c. 1950 • Northern China, China • Ceramic • Collection #S195E

H: 8.0" Dia: 16.5"

Originally used for pickling vegetables, this mid-20th century ceramic jar is coated inside and out with a dark glaze. Subtle ridges suggest that the bowl was fashioned by coiling flattened ropes of clay into the desired shape. Featuring an unglazed rim and speckled with imperfections, this bowl exemplifies the timeless appeal of handcrafted pottery. Tucked within a garden, this ceramic pot makes the perfect planter for flowers and greenery.
