CINNABAR INCENSE TABLE

$2,180

c. 1900 • Northern China, China • Northern Elmwood, Lacquer • Collection #TLA037

W: 37.0" D: 14.75" H: 31.5"

Dated to the early 20th century, this shallow console table was originally used for general storage or as an altar for burning incense during ancestor worship. The table has a simple design suitable for any interior, featuring a squared frame, corner legs ending in hoofed feet, minimal decoration, and a cinnabar red lacquer finish. Fitted with three drawers once used for storing incense and accessories, this little red table is the perfect place to stow odds and ends.
