GILT LATTICE WINDOW PANEL

$2,180

c. 1900 • China • Pigment, Lacquer, Teak • Collection #CFC284B

W: 39.5" H: 32.0"

Decorated with oxblood-red lacquer and its original gold paint, this ornate window panel is a beautiful example of traditional Chinese latticework. Set into a wall or door, lattice windows such as this allowed light and air into a room while maintaining privacy.

PAGODA RED

GILT LATTICE WINDOW PANEL

A rectangular border encloses the carvings, appearing as if held in place by small birds in each corner. Darkened by a rich patina that only time can achieve, this gorgeous lattice looks fantastic in modern interiors as a sculptural wall hanging.
