BURLED BRUSH POT

$380

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Cypress • Collection #BJH006

W: 8.25" D: 7.25" H: 8.0"

Carefully carved from a cypress tree burl, this late 19th-century burlwood brush pot once held select calligraphy brushes in a scholars' studio. Placed alongside the Four Treasures of the scholar - paper, brush, ink, and inkstone - this brush pot would have stirred the imagination and satisfied the scholars' taste for natural forms. We love the gnarled and twisted form of this burled brush pot as a decorative bowl or an unexpected planter for a single orchid.
