WINE TABLE WITH CLOUD SPANDRELS

$2,880

c. 1750 • China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #CJN003

W: 39.0" D: 25.5" H: 33.0"

Ideal as a console or center table in the modern home, this exquisite 18th-century wine table charms with rounded legs, simple double stretchers, and decorative cloud-form spandrels. A fixture of China's time-honored history of wine making, the table would have been used as a gathering spot for serving wine and making group toasts. The table is minimally decorated and showcases the natural beauty of northern elmwood (yumu), darkened by a rich patina that only time can achieve.

Due to movement of the wood over time, the table surface is no longer perfectly level.
