c. 1850 • China • Northern Elmwood, Rattan • Collection #CJD001

W: 53.0" D: 33.75" H: 19.0"

Dated to the early 20th century, this low daybed features a woven rattan top and four cabriole legs that flare outwards with an elegant flourish. The frame is crafted of northern elm (yumu) using mortise-and-tenon joinery and darkened by layers of rich dark brown lacquer. Known as "ta," this style of small, low-lying daybed was used throughout the courtyard home as a portable surface for reclining, playing games, and gathering for food and drink.
