$2,880

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Rosewood • Collection #BJB015

W: 19.5" D: 19.5" H: 30.75"

This early 20th-century table is made of huali wood, a type of rosewood, and was likely used as a display stand for flowers or antiques. Its subtle elegance is in the details: a petite waist, tailored apron, and legs ending in scroll-carved feet. The table is joined together with masterful mortise and tenon construction, without the use of nails or screws.
