ROUND REDWARE VESSEL

$1,480

Unknown • West Africa • Ceramic • Collection #CBH044

H: 9.25" Dia: 9.0"

Covered in a beautifully worn red clay slip, this hand-formed ceramic pot is an excavated redware vessel from West Africa. Horizontal bands of colored slip partition the vessel's rounded form, interrupted by dark smoke residue clouding the surface. Still in remarkable condition with only minor losses, this once-functional vessel lives on as a work of art with rich texture and graceful proportions.
