PROVINCIAL SIX-DOOR DONGBEI COFFER

$5,880

c. 1900 • Dongbei, China • Pine • Collection #TLC016

W: 79.5" D: 20.0" H: 33.5"

The warm tones and active grain of natural pine wood are the focus of this unusually articulated six-door coffer. Made for a provincial home in northeastern China, this sideboard was once used as a home altar to honor loved ones past and present with photos, ancestral tablets and offerings. Crafted in the late 19th century, the expansive table has a simple yet effective design with bold proportions and an impressive solid plank top. The coffer features a row of doors with round pulls and extends horizontally with an overhanging top and apron, and low-lying stretcher bars. Continued...
