FAMILLE ROSE PEACH TREE GARDEN STOOL

$1,880

China • Porcelain • Collection #CFC233

H: 18.75" Dia: 12.5"

During the 18th century, Europeans provided an eager market for Chinese export porcelain, especially the colorful and fanciful ware known as “famille rose.” Named for a palette of opaque overglaze enamels that favored roses and pinks, famille rose porcelain ware was crafted with the same technical virtuosity as imperial porcelain but designed for Western tastes.

This porcelain garden stool continues the famille rose tradition with a colorful display of peach tree branches laden with ripe fruit and pink blossoms. Depicted here with beautiful gradations of red to white, peaches are potent symbols of immortality and emblems of a long and happy marriage. Continued...

FAMILLE ROSE PEACH TREE GARDEN STOOL

Keeping with the classic studded barrel drum form, the stool features cutouts on the sides in the shape of interlocking coins, symbols of prosperity used to attract wealth. These central motifs are bordered by rings of auspicious ruyi, bands of decorative patterns, and scenes of bats flying amid clouds, symbols of happiness. A fantastic way to add pattern and color to an interior, this drum stool is a versatile seat or side table, indoors and out.
