KNOTTED WALKING STICK

$680

c. 1900 • China • Root • Collection #NN133

W: 2.75" D: 2.5" H: 46.75"

The knotted and twisted nature of root wood has long been celebrated in China, as evidenced in this fantastic late 19th-century walking stick. The wood's unusual gnarled form was carefully preserved as it was carved into a functional walking stick - as much a fashionable accessory as it is a utilitarian object.
