SONG HONGQUAN, "FOUR DUMPLINGS," 2017

$5,980

2017 • Beijing, China • Marble • Collection #CFA006

H: 2.25" Dia: 9.0"

The son of a noted stone carver, Song Hongquan inherited his father's affinity for manipulating diverse materials such as granite, marble, and basite. In "Four Dumplings," Song hand-carved four incredibly life-like dumplings on a plate from a single slab of white marble. The piece is part of an ongoing body of work that depicts objects from his everyday life growing up in a village in China. Cooking utensils, hand tools, miniature stools and tables, and the like are all painstakingly carved from granite and marble, recalling a simpler way of life that has been quickly disappearing in his country.
