QUEEN ANNE STYLE BURLED WALNUT CHEST OF DRAWERS

$6,580

c. 1800 • United Kingdom • Wood, Walnut, Brass • Collection #CFC413

W: 38.25" D: 17.5" H: 37.5"

This gorgeous chest of drawers dates to the late-18th century and was crafted in the Queen Anne style with a walnut veneer, bracket feet, and a slightly overhung top. The top is crossbanded with walnut and a thin inset border of contrasting wood. The drawers are patterned with a similar crossbanding and adorned with ornate gilt drop handles and keyhole escutcheons. The veneered exterior boasts a richly aged patina, textured by a build up of minute blemishes and marks that provide surface intrigue and character. With timeless elegance and a luxurious finish, this five-drawer cabinet is a beautiful example of 18th-century English furniture design. Continued...
