GLAZED WINE JAR

$488

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Terra Cotta • Collection #TLB155WWW

H: 10.0" Dia: 10.0"

Crafted in the early 20th century, this glazed jar was once used in a Qing-dynasty kitchen to store vinegar, wine, or condiments, as evidenced by its narrow, constricted neck and interior glaze. The jar boasts a thick, dark black glaze over its high shoulders and tapered sides. Featuring an unglazed rim and speckled with imperfections, this jar exemplifies the timeless appeal of handcrafted pottery and is a wonderful option as a vase or planter.
