FRENCH IVORY CALLING CARD BOX

$580

c. 1850 • France • Wood, Metal, Ivory • Collection #CFC596

W: 3.0" D: 0.5" H: 4.25"

This petite ivory case is an antique French visiting card box crafted in the late 19th century. A progenitor to the modern business card, visiting cards were popular among high society during the Victorian Era as a status symbol to leave behind while making house calls. The calling card box is fashioned from ivory and wire inlay and features a delicate garden tableau that depicts a bird drinking from a fountain. Reminiscent of a cigarette case, the box hinges open to reveal a wooden interior lined with red velvet.
