LACQUERED SILHOUETTE TRAY

$388

c. 1930 • France • Pigment, Lacquer, Metal • Collection #CFC141

W: 26.0" D: 20.25" H: 1.25"

This large metal tray dates to the early 20th century and is decorated with gilt paintings atop an underlayer of red and black lacquer. The raised sides are painted with floral scrollwork and gilt cartouches with silhouetted dancers, depicted like live performers on a theater stage. With time, the tray has developed a crackled texture and a beautiful aged patina.

From the collection of Frances and Gary Comer.
