LOW WOVEN TOP DAYBED

$4,680

c. 1850 • Southern China, China • Cypress, Reed • Collection #QQQ082

W: 66.25" D: 27.25" H: 19.0"

This mid-19th century cypress daybed from southern China features simple round legs connected by gentle humpback stretchers. The tightly-woven top surface was hand-woven of reeds in a refined and ancient technique, held in place by a thin layer of lacquer. Traditionally, a daybed such as this was not only a place to sleep, but also a gathering place to sit with others while sharing tea over conversation.
