MANTOU BASKET

$288

c. 1900 • Shanxi, China • Paint, Willow • Collection #BJGG020E

W: 18.0" D: 9.75" H: 5.0"

Woven with a delightfully unusual form, this early 20th-century basket was originally used to steam mantou buns in a provincial home in Shanxi province. The boat-shaped basket is formed of willow reeds entwined with a plain weave, and has since been brightly painted to be used for household storage. We love the rustic touch it gives to the home used as a serving tray or vide-poche.
