PAGODA
RED

PROVINCIAL COFFER WITH FOLK PAINTINGS

$2,980

c. 1900 • Gansu, China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #Q191

W: 73.0″ D: 23.75″ H: 33.5″

The folk paintings on this cabinet depict 19th century Chinese provincial life-—our favorite is the courtyard scene with a young boy carrying a burden bar that balances two buckets of water. Paintings like this offer a glimpse at architecture, dress and customs of the time. The painted panels were originally stationary but now open as doors.

PAGODA
RED

PROVINCIAL COFFER WITH FOLK PAINTINGS

Additional Dimensions

Top shelf of three identical cupboards: 19″W x 18″D x 10.5″H

Bottom shelf of three identical cupboards: 19″W x 18″D x 9″H