This modern console table is a celebration of wabi-sabi style. Crafted of wood reclaimed from Qing-dynasty architecture, the table has a minimalist waterfall design with dovetailed corners that recreate traditional joinery methods and add intrigue to the clean-lined form. The narrow table has been darkened to our signature black-brown ESPRESSO waxed finish to add rich color while preserving the natural beauty of the wood. Ideal in a hallway or entry, this modern console captivates with simplicity of form and incredible texture.
