$11,780

c. 1850 • Zhejiang, China • Fir • Collection #ZZZ095

W: 19.25" D: 2.0" H: 107.5"

The sweeping elegance of these six 19th-century courtyard doors, with their intricate lattice panels, hides the mathematical brilliance required to create them. The panels evoke life in a traditional courtyard home, where the openwork allowed light and air to flow into the inner rooms while maintaining privacy for its occupants. Creating lattice was a geometric puzzle; this floral and quadrilobe design was made by the precise interlocking of long and short pieces of carved wood. The bottom of each is finished with solid, knotty panels.

Dimensions listed describe an individual panel.
