SQUARE BAMBOO BIRDCAGE WITH BURL INLAY CUP

$780

c. 1900 • China • Wood, Bamboo • Collection #CFC452

W: 9.0" D: 9.0" H: 17.5"

This delicate 19th-century birdcage was once home to the tiny pet bird of a Qing-dynasty aristocrat. The square cage is expertly crafted of thin bamboo rods and held together with waxed thread at the corners. The cage opens by a sliding side door and hangs from a simple brass hook secured to the top. Several accessories decorate the interior, including six wooden perches textured with sand or wrapped in wire for added traction. The base is elevated by corner feet. A small hardwood container with burl inlay is affixed to one side of the birdcage, potentially used for water or feed. Continued...
