ARCHED ROSEWOOD LANTERN

$4,280

c. 1850 • China • Rosewood, Metal, Frosted Glass • Collection #CFC388

W: 15.5" D: 15.5" H: 28.0"

Framed in hand-carved rosewood, this 19th-century hanging lantern casts a soft glow through frosted glass. The lantern has a square frame, with straight sides and gently arched tops carved with abstract dragons and bats, symbols of strength and happiness. Expertly crafted with fine materials, this elegant lantern illuminates modern interiors with a refined form that has become more impressive with time.

From the collection of Frances and Gary Comer.

Fixture is hardwired and in working condition.
