Created in the style of Mongolian storage coffers, this late 19th-century herdsman's chest has a minimalist design and plenty of rustic appeal. Originally configured to open from the top, this chest was modified with front-facing doors by our carpenters skilled in traditional joinery. The four doors open to a continuous interior fitted with a single shelf. Ideal as a sideboard or credenza, the square corner cabinet is minimally decorated with a simple carved apron and an unfinished exterior, textured by wear and patina.
