

THAI GILT BRONZE SEATED BUDDHA

$780

c. 1850 • Thailand • Bronze • Collection #CMK089B

W: 2.5" D: 1.5" H: 3.5"

Once ornately gilt, this serene bronze seated Buddha was created in Thailand in the mid-19th century. Cast in the older Sukhothai style, the Buddha bears a uniquely Thai flame-like spike stretching upward from the crown of his head. Called an ushnisha, the spike signifies wisdom and the spiritual power of the Buddha's enlightenment. The Buddha is seated in vajrasana with hands in the bhumisparsha mudra, a gesture representing the moment that the Buddha claimed the earth as witness to his awakening. Continued...

THAI GILT BRONZE SEATED BUDDHA

This posture celebrates the Buddha's unwavering strength of focus as he resists distraction and temptation from the demon King Mara to achieve enlightenment.
