TWO DRAWER LOW TABLE

$2,280

c. 1850 • Henan, China • Northern Elmwood • Collection #CV002

W: 31.0" D: 18.5" H: 25.0"

This compact, early 19th-century Chinese table charms with simple spandrels and carved molding and brass and iron hardware. Used as part of ancestor worship rituals, it was once laden with incense, candles, fruits, and other offerings to ancestors. Designed with a floating panel top and mortise-and-tenon joinery, the table was handcrafted of elmwood and finished with a lacquer that's aged beautifully after hundreds of years of use.
