VINTAGE VEGETABLE BASKET

$288

c. 1940-1970 • Tianjin, China • Willow • Collection #BJG003

W: 23.0" D: 17.5" H: 17.5"

It's easy to imagine the original owner of this basket walking to market on a summer day with the arched handle slung over their arm. Used for carrying food or harvesting vegetables from the garden, this dark, woven basket is a beautiful example of Chinese basket-making. Basket making is an ancient and humble craft, but in the hands of a truly skilled weaver, willow branches, symbols of renewal and springtime, can be transformed into a truly beautiful work of art.
